

Dominick M. Deligio
1516 W. Highland Ave, Milwaukee, WI 53201
(847)-323-0525
Deligiod@msoe.edu

Objective

To earn an internship or job opportunity in the construction field that will allow me expand the knowledge I have gained through my college education and apply it in a practical setting.

Education

Degree: Currently working towards a Bachelor Degrees in Architectural Engineering and Construction Management. Estimated completion date: May 2012

Institution: Milwaukee School of Engineering Milwaukee, WI

GPA: 2.8/4.0 scale

Minor: Mathematics

Relevant Coursework

- Auto CAD and Revit
- Principals of Fluid Dynamics
- Mechanics of Materials II
- Specifications and Contracts

Achievements, Honors and Organization

- Recipient of four Commemorative Scholarships for College
- 2009 MSOE Commercial Design Team member
- Member of Milwaukee School of Engineering Wrestling Team
- Member of American Society of Heating, Refrigerating and Air-conditioning Engineers (ASHRAE)
- Member of Associated General Contractors/American Institute of Constructors (AIC/AGC)
- Member of The International Union of Operating Engineers (IUOE) Local 317
- ASE Certified

Professional Experience

Operating Engineer March 2007- August 2009

Milwaukee Repertory Theater Milwaukee, WI

- Learned and Performed Building Automation
- Performed Maintenance and Preventable Maintenance on the Building
- Performed Several Mechanical and Physical Repairs on Building
- Continuously Learning About Mechanical Equipment of Building
- Ensure Building is Working Properly and Patrons are Comfortable

LEED Intern March 2009- July 2009

Mequon Nature Preserve Mequon, WI

- Worked on LEED certifying the building
- Learned how LEED process works

References

Available on request via phone or email